

I am writing to strongly urge the FCC not to repeal the cross-ownership ban that bars newspapers and television stations in a single geographic area from being owned by one company. Please preserve media diversity and accuracy by maintaining the cross-ownership ban.